

GENEALOGY OF THE DUNN-HATCHER FAMILY

From 1850 to 1993

by Mary Jane Dunn Johnson

1994

William Arthur Dunn immigrated from Ireland in 1850. He married Mary Hatcher in 1864 or 1865, most likely in Cleveland, Ohio as that is where her family lived. The 1880 U.S. Census lists her Father's name as John Hatcher, born in Ohio. Mary's Mother's name is not listed, but those records show she was from the State of Virginia. Those records also show William's parents were from Ireland.

The June 16, 1900 U.S. Census shows they had been married 36 years, thus putting the marriage date between 1864 and 1865. I have been unable to find a record of their marriage in either Ohio or Wisconsin.

William and Mary settled on a farm in Bear Creek, Wisconsin. Their children were baptized at the Catholic Church between Bear Creek and New London, WI in Lebanon Township. The baptism records are at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Lebanon, WI.

There is some question regarding the name of William's wife. She was listed on the 1870 Waupaca County Census as "Emma" and also "Emma" is the Mother's name on the baptism records for the first seven children. On the baptism records for the last five children the Mother's name is given as "Mary".

In view of the 1900 U.S. Census showing both Mary and William as having each been married for 36 years, having had 12 children with two deceased, it seems logical to assume there was only one wife. Also, Census records that list their ages, show both "Emma" and "Mary" as being the same age! It is possible she used the name of "Emma" and then changed it to "Mary" for some reason. The death certificates for both George and John list their Mother's name as "Mary".

I have been unable to find a marriage record for William to either "Emma" or "Mary", or a death record for "Emma". William's death is recorded in the Courthouse at Rhinelander, WI. He is buried in the old Catholic Cemetery in Bear Creek. Mary died in Minneapolis at her daughter Kathryn's home and is buried in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Minneapolis.

It is significant that none of the 12 children ever mentioned that there were two mothers. If there had indeed been two, surely one of the children would have said so to someone in their own family. The first we learned of "Emma" was in 1977 when we were researching the baptism records.

Mary's middle name does not appear on any Census records. Her death certificate lists her name as "Mary G. Dunn". Henry Dunn's daughter Dorothy's middle name is Geneva. Her father told her that was his Mother's middle name.

The 1900 U.S. Census lists 8 children as still living at home in Rhinelander, WI. John and George were deceased and Mary and Ellen had already left home. All those at home are listed as being single.

George and John were living in Clintonville, WI at the time of their death from typhoid fever. They are both buried in the Catholic Cemetary in Bear Creek where their Father is buried. Frank Dunn also had typhoid fever at the same time, but he recovered.

Five sons: Frank, James, Michael, William and Stephen all worked for the railroad. Henry was a cigar maker by trade, but he too worked for the railroad in Weyerhauser, WI as a call boy (messenger) when he was a young boy.

It is interesting to note the records show place of birth for the children as New London, Bear Creek or Lebanon, but all in the County of Waupaca, WI. The census record shows the family living in Rhinelander, WI in 1900.

In 1977 when Earl, Edna, Verna and I visited Bear Creek looking for information, we saw the place where the Dunn homestead had been. And we saw where the family graves are in the Bear Creek Cemetary.

The family resemblance between all the sons is very strong - they all look like each other. I do not have a picture of Anna Dunn nor one of Ellen when she was young. I do have a picture of Mary Dunn as a young girl, before 20 years of age, and one picture of Kathryn Dunn at age 17. They were both pretty girls and bear a striking resemblance to their Mother, Mary Dunn.

William Arthur Dunn was born in Ireland February 1835. He immigrated to the United States in 1850. He died June 12, 1903. He is buried in Bear Creek, Wisconsin.

He married Mary Geneva Hatcher in 1864 or 1865, probably in Ohio. Mary was born November 15, 1845 in Ohio. She died December 4, 1926. She is buried in St. Mary's Cemetery in Minneapolis, MN.

William and Mary had 12 children: 8 sons and 4 daughters. They are as follows in order of birth:

I. Ellen Dunn was George's twin	b. Nov. 24, 1866	New London, WI
	d. Dec. 7, 1933	Rhineland, WI

In 1897 Ellen was pregnant and not married. Her Mother (as the story goes) put her out and she went to the poor farm to live - a place for needy people, as there was no welfare in those days. Ellen was 31 years old at that time.

Ezra Worden from Bear Creek was looking for a wife and went to the poor farm to get one. He married Ellen and they went to live at Three Lakes, Wisconsin. The baby was a boy and was given the name of Worden, but his father's name was Jakeway - a French Canadian. The baby was named Francis Wesley Worden.

This birth is recorded in Vol. 1, Page 94, No. 02559 in the Ladysmith Court House, Rusk County, WI. There was no record of death. Probably died as an infant. Record shows other issue: Francis Wesley, James Marvin, George Alec and Mary Jane (May)

F. Agnes Ann Worden

b. Feb. 21, 1907

Weyerhauser, WI

Agnes was a patient at Northern Wisconsin Center in Chippewa Falls. She was originally admitted in April 13, 1931. She was transferred to Outagamie County Health Center in Appleton, WI in June, 1932. She was transferred back to Northern Wisconsin Center (Northern Hospital) March 9, 1944. They have no further record of her. George and May were also patients at the Wisconsin Center and are both buried there. They did have a record that May was visited by her stepmother in 1935.

After Ellen died Ezra advertised for a wife and married Mrs. Maggie Cornwall November 5, 1935 at Three Lakes, Wisconsin.

II. George Dunn was Ellen's twin

b. Nov. 24, 1866
d. Aug. 10, 1891

Clintonville, WI

John, George and Frank Dunn all had typhoid fever about the same time. George died Aug. 10, 1891 and was buried Aug. 12 at Bear Creek cemetery. John died Aug. 20, 1891 and was buried Aug. 21 at Bear Creek cemetery. Frank recovered with just a bald spot on his head as a result of the fever.

Based on the 1890 U.S. Census John, age 23 years, and George, age 25 years, were not living at home when they died. Their Registration of Deaths list their residence as Clintonville, WI.

George's Registration of Death lists his Mother's name as "Mary".

There is no record that George ever married.

From St. Rose Congregation, 44 - 7th St., Clintonville, WI 54929
From Father Charles Shebuski:

"We do not have any of the details about the Dunn family recorded here except for the burial of George and John, which, as you already know, took place at Bear Creek. We do not have a record of anything before 1880, baptisms or deaths.

This parish was serviced by a non-resident priest in the 1870's from Leeman, WI. If he had a church there then I don't know. You might contact the priest at Navarine or Shiocton or even New London to find out".

VIII. Mary Dunn

b. Mar. 12, 1879
d. _____

Lebanon, WI

I saw a marker in the Cloquet Cemetary with the name "Mary Dunn" on it, but no date. Cloquet burned in 1918 and all their records were destroyed. They have no records before 1918. I have never found any record of Mary in my research in Wisconsin.

Frank Dunn's wife, Kitty, told me she thought Mary was a chambermaid in a hotel in Cloquet - but there is no proof.

We have 1 picture of Mary - she was a very pretty girl.
